

A TINY SEED

I'm nice and warm tucked up in a blanket.

I start to unravel into the sunshine. I can't wait to meet all my new friends. There are pink and purple flowers. I can't wait to see what I'm going to be.

Suddenly I start to wiggle out. I burst. I start swelling up and up into a glorious rainbow flower. I stretch beautiful petals out of my stem, blooming into freedom. I feel the nice and toasty sunshine that sprinkles on me.

Soon it starts to rain. I feel so alive like I never was. I love my life and I never want to change.

Then it starts to snow.....it is so freezing! My petals turn white. I snuggle up into a curly flower.

The sun shines and I shake off the snow and spread out my nice warm petals. I feel so smooth and warm.

Then I start to go to sleep waiting to wake up for another lovely day.
